

Charges

Filming on or next to the highway requires Surrey County Council agreement. Charges are applicable, depending on requirements. The following charges will be made when filming on the highway:

One off charge per permit (non-refundable). Street filming administration fees cover all street filming included at one location in a single permit application. Multiple locations may be submitted on a single application, however, each location will require an individual permit. Additional permit applications or amendments and changes will incur further charges:
